

GRAFF JOINS MICHELIN LE MANS CUP GRID IN PAUL RICARD

GRAFF is happy to confirm its engagement to the second race of Michelin Le Mans Cup 2024 season in Paul Ricard.

GRAFF lines up a Greek-Swiss duo for its return on the Michelin Le Mans Cup grid. Georgios Kolovos (Bronze) and Axel Gnos (Silver) will team up on a JSP320 LMP3.

Georgios Kolovos shone in 2023 in Ligier European Series and in Ultimate Cup Series where he claimed the win of the final race of the season with GRAFF for his maiden LMP3 race.

After an early career in single-seater and Sprint GT, Axel Gnos made his endurance racing debut in Ultimate Cup Series in LMP3 this year. The Kolovos-Gnos pair has already raced together in the first Michelin Le Mans Cup race in Barcelona where they classified P16.

Pascal Rauturier, Team Manager: "It's a pleasure to support Georgios and Axel for our home Le Mans Cup race in Paul Ricard. The level on the grid is as high as ever and we will give our best to perform well."

The Michelin Le Mans Cup race will take place in Paul Ricard on Saturday, May 4th and will be live on Youtube.
