

JAMES WINSLOW AND JOHN CORBETT JOIN GRAFF IN ULTIMATE CUP SERIES

GRAFF is pleased to announce the entry of a third NP02 in the 2024 Ultimate Cup Series season. This car will be driven by John Corbett and James Winslow.

This is not James Winslow's first collaboration with GRAFF as he raced 3 times in the Gulf 12 Hours between 2017 and 2019, which he won twice, as well as one participation in the 24 Hours of Le Mans in 2017 alongside Eric Trouillet and Enzo Guibbert.

In his career, James Winslow has collected 11 titles in single seaters and prototypes. More recently, James Winslow won the Asian Le Mans Series LMP3 title in 2024.

John Corbett had joined his fellow Australian at GRAFF for the 2017 Gulf 12 Hours and in Michelin Le Mans Cup in 2019 in Portimão. The duo has several wins to its name, both in Radical and LMP3. They have also raced together at Le Mans 24 Hours in 2021 in LMP2.

The pair will tackle a new challenge this year, making their debut in NP02 at the season-opening in Paul Ricard.

James Winslow, driver: "I'm really happy driving alongside my good friend John Corbett, a full season together will be a real treat, we always have a lot of fun and we usually also get good results, this season we're excited to be driving a new NOVA prototype and think we will be a really strong force together for the overall championship. We are also excited to be back with Graff, we have a long history together over almost a decade, we have won many races together and I'm sure this season will be the same."

Pascal Rauturier, Team Manager: "I am very happy to work with John and James again. They will make a great line-up as they know each other very well. James' experience will be valuable to fight for victories."

The 2024 Ultimate Cup Series season will open in Paul Ricard on March 17th and will have 6 races in France and Europe.
